Probation Officer Says Insecurity Cause of Trouble

Bess Hancock, Los Angeles Juvenile Court probation officer, discussed some of the reasons for juvenile delinquency at the Fern Avenue P. T. A. meeting Tuesday. She asserted insecurity was the principal factor contributing to mischief and crime by minors, pointing out that mental insecurity, haphazard meals and unkempt clothes and the things which lead to divorce create that insecurity.

She said parents should make an effort to provide suitable entertainment because unwise leisure hours can undo all the teachings of home, school and church.

During the business session, delegates to both Lomita-San Pedro Council and the Tenth District conventions were chosen and a nominating committee was elected to choose local officers for next year.

Mrs. Chas. Woodcock spoke urging mothers to save all wool sweaters and any wool clothing for the Red Cross. At a table festive with an Easter motif, coffee and decorated cakes were served by the third grade room mothers, Mrs. Geo. Leech and Mrs. Fred Byer pouring.

TRAVEL TALK TEA FEATURE

One of the lovely affairs of the week was the tea yesterday afternoon sponsored by St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church. Mrs. Rosemary DeCamp Shidler gave a delightful talk on highlights of her recent vacation trip to old Mexico.

At the tea table, decorated with an arrangement of jonquills, an Easter motif was used. Hostesses were Mrs. Paul Moore Wheeler and Louis J. DeJinger. Mrs. Moore and Mrs. J. C. Snow, president, poured.
